

OUTDOORHIRE ACTIVITY – BOOKING TERMS & CONDITIONS

Part of the attraction of valley, hill or mountain walking is the challenge of tackling different terrains, landscapes and weather conditions. Every effort is made to minimize potential hazards; however, the very nature of hill-walking involves a certain level of unavoidable risk. By taking part in this activity, you are aware of and accept these risks.

All activities will involve a varying degree of rough and muddy/rocky terrain, high ground, open moorland and a number of ascents/descents. We may also encounter adverse weather conditions whilst on the activity.

Walking and outdoor activities can be strenuous. Never underestimate the strenuous nature of walking particularly when this is combined with high ground and the elements.

No previous hill-walking experience is required and activities are set according to the experience and average fitness levels of the group. However, a basic level of fitness is required as the natural environment can be demanding at times.

All participants must provide suitable outdoor footwear, preferably walking boots, with sturdy cleated soles and ankle support.

Outdoorhire Limited accept no responsibility for personal accidents or injury or for loss or damage to personal effects unless caused by their negligence as Leader.

All participants must take heed of any information, guidance or hazard warnings given by the Leader during the pre-activity briefing or whilst on the activity.
